Edward "Ned" Kelly (December 1854 - 11 November 1880) was an Australian bushranger, outlaw, gang leader and convicted police murderer. One of the last bushrangers, and by far the most famous, he is best known for wearing a suit of bulletproof armour during his final shootout with the police.. Kelly was born in the British colony of Victoria as the third of eight children to Irish parents.

Engine Drivers. There is a fairly extensive biographical literature on engine drivers. There are a few autobiographies in the form of books (either written by themselves or with the assistance of professional writers) and there are the footplatemen who became general writers notably McKillop and the Essery brothers. R.H.N. Hardy also wrote extensively about the footplatemen whom he encountered ...
