When it comes to retirement budgeting, expect the unexpected. That's the takeaway from a recent survey from the Society of Actuaries, which found that half of retirees in their mid 70s and beyond can't cover an unplanned expense of $10,000.. Results were hardly better for older baby boomers, 41% of whom couldn't come up with enough emergency savings, or younger boomers, 45% of whom would ...

Over the last few years, I think I've finally figured this peaking thing out. It took a while because, like many coaches, I fell into the standard "tapering" model we've all been taught. Problem was, tapering didn't work consistently. The results were just as hit-or-miss as not tapering at all. So, I threw "tapering" out...
