After reading Never Too Far, I totally got it, and while I still didn't feel 100% connected to the characters, I knew I would be reading Forever Too Far as soon as it came out. Forever Too Far is the perfect ending to the drama that was Rush and Blaire. I love the people they became and would love to hear more about them later in life.

Forever Too Far By: Abbi Glines. RUSH We stayed for five more days and let Blaire get to know her brother. Captain was a lot easier to tolerate once I realized he wasn't checking Blaire out in a sexual way. He was just curious about his sister. I understood that. But I was also glad to pack up and go home.

Forever Too Far, since it was really Rush and Blaire's swan song, had less of the angst that I love reading from Abbi, but Nan was a good catalyst for that. And, it was handled really well. Other than the angsty scenes, and the sexy scenes,, the best section of this book for me was when Blaire was preparing for her wedding, and Rush sent her ...
