Public Enemies, book two of the Immortal Game series, is a darkly fantastic, heart-pounding book by Ann Aguirre, the New York Times-and USA Today-bestselling author of the Razorland series. "Should particularly appeal to fans of Ilsa Bick's "The Dark Passages" series and Mary Weber's "The Storm Siren" trilogy. . . .

Public Enemies | Ann Aguirre | Macmillan

Aguirre expects readers to recall that in this complex plot, Edie has become involved in the immortal game of the series title, defined in the first book but never here. Except for the inventive translation of mythological creatures into the book's monsters, any of which might become enemies or collaborators, the storyline essentially follows the standard formula for paranormal romance.
